(Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The fourth game of the Temple Cup series opened under a cloudy sky as the Orioles hoped. The Catholic Protective Band was again in evidence, having to serenade the New Yorks in their dressing rooms half an hour before preliminary practice began.

Herman Van Der Horst stood at his main entrance within earshot of the band, but in response to the sympathetic hope of a pretty Baltimore woman that the pennant-winners might at least capture one game, he said disconsolately: "No, I expect to go back to Baltimore to-day."

When an "Evening World" man asked Ed Hanlon: "What time do you return to Baltimore?" the manager's eyes twinkled and he replied: "Don't you know, that's a saucy question. Why, Wednesday morning, of course."

"Then you expect to rest to-morrow?" "Oh, no. We'll win these two games."

Ed Hanlon would say was "Well, The Evening World" we hope to win to-day."

Ward made a pretty pick-up on Reitz's hit, and tossed it to first, but Hurd declared the runner safe, McGraw tallying. On a drop, Reitz went to second, and Fuller backed off and gathered in Jennings's fly. One run.

Meekin got a round of applause, and responded with a zigzag grounder between Jennings and Reitz. Burke gave Robbie an easy foul, Tiernan, who was cheered, lined a safe one to right, advancing Meekin base.

Davis hit a hot one to Jennings, which doubled up Mike, but Davis was declared safe on a close decision. Hurd tallied on Doyle's scorcher to McGraw, but Davis foolishly tried to come in, and was easily thrown out. One run.

Fourth inning—Robinson cracked his second safe hit to left. Hawke again failed the atmosphere, this time giving Tiernan a fly and Robbie hugged the bag. Then he tried to steal and Ward and Farrell caught him by three feet. No runs.

Ward passed one right into McGraw's hands, and was an easy victim. Van put another law-mower into left, and Hurd declared the runner safe. The ball was pitched as Fuller met it with his bat. Van sprang to third, and Shultz got first. Farrell lifted a single over short, and Van romped home amid the most enthusiasm of the day.

Meekin struck at a wide one and Fuller and Farrell made a double steal. Meekin swung at the next and pounded it into the ground in front of the plate. Fuller came home and Farrell went to third and Hurd said Meekin was safe. Burke tried to centre, but Farrell beat Brodie's return to the plate. Tiernan fouled to Robinson. Three runs.

HAWKE'S ELEVEN WINS.
All-Massachusetts Fifteen Bents by an Innings and 10 Runs.
(By Associated Press.)

CRICKET.—LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 8.—The morning of the second inning in the cricket match between Lord Hawke's twelve and the fifteen of the Massachusetts team broke misty and raw, but the sun soon tempered the atmosphere milder than that of Saturday.

The breeze was strong and southerly. Play began with the Massachusetts team at the bat, J. H. Comber and J. Smith facing the bowling of C. W. Whitwell and L. C. V. Bathurst.

In the first over two byes were scored. The next over did not result in any runs, but the batsmen were not discouraged. Smith made a single off Whitwell in the next over, and a leg-bye was obtained. Smith then drove to third, and the bowling of Whitwell, the score standing 4-1.

P. Clark was next sent to the bat and a single was made off Whitwell, and a leg-bye also being made. Hardwell was put in to bowl in place of Bathurst, and was soon bowled by Whitwell, having made a score of 15. Score—3-1-1-1.

Mr. Mansfield was caught by Birdwell in his first over without making a score. Shephardson was sent to bat, without score, but he was bowled by Whitwell, and Mr. Fairburn then went in, and scored a single off Whitwell.

Fairburn sent the ball out of the oval for three and his brother followed suit. J. J. Mansfield substituted as bowler in place of Whitwell, and Mr. Fairburn scored a single off his first ball and the batsmen were not discouraged. The operation was a few minutes later. Bathurst was again put in to bowl, and he was bowled by Whitwell, and a single was made off Whitwell, and a leg-bye also being made.

WILL PRESENT A NEW TICKET.

The LXX., However, Is to and Goff for Recorder.

TO-DROP NAMES OF GRACE MEN

The New Slate Will Be Decided Upon at a Meeting To-Morrow Morning.

THIS TO BE THE LAST EFFORT.

If It Fails, the LXX. Will Issue a Statement and Go Out of Business.

The Executive Committee of the LXX. will make a last, supreme effort to-morrow to arrange a ticket that will be acceptable to the anti-Tammany organizations, and with which they hope to defeat whatever ticket Tammany Hall may put up or endorse.

In this last effort, however, one thing seems pretty certain, and that is that not a single Grace-Fairchild man's name will appear upon the remodelled ticket.

The LXX. seem to think they have come out on the Grace-Fairchild ticket, and are being compelled to divide Congressmen, Assemblymen and local officials with the weaker faction of the party.

All this came out in an apparently general remark made by Mayor Gilroy after the meeting.

The Advisory Committee met this morning at 10 o'clock in Tammany Hall. The Committee consists of Mayor Thos. F. Gilroy, Henry D. Purroy, James J. Martin, Corporation Counsel W. H. Clark, J. F. Carroll, James W. Boyle, Daniel McMahon and Patrick Keenan.

County Clerk Purroy was the first to put in an appearance, and while waiting for the others to arrive he said it would be almost impossible to outline for some days what Tammany's course would be.

"The next few days," he said, "will be taken up with conferences of all kinds to suit the changes in the situation. I am one of those who hope for the ultimate success of the State ticket. As to all this talk of union with the New York State Democracy, I can say nothing. I never like to discuss a situation until I meet it. Usually I like to talk, but I do not believe the present is a good time to say anything. We must wait."

Mayor Gilroy arrived at Tammany Hall promptly at 10 o'clock. Then along came all the others of the Advisory Committee, save Commissioner Martin, who, however, appeared later. Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, with dozen or so other shining lights of the Wigwam, who were anxious to hear what the plan of campaign was like.

As to the naming of a candidate for Mayor-in case the Grace-Fairchild combination is not going to be endorsed, it was pointed out that two years ago Thomas F. Gilroy was not selected until an hour or so before the holding of the Convention. It is expected that the same state of affairs will be witnessed again. One thing seems certain, however, that some kind of a union will be effected on Congressional, Senate and Assembly nominations.

While the Advisory Committee was in session a delegation from the United German Democracy arrived and asked a hearing. They were Mr. Jacob Conde, Dr. A. Fresh, J. W. Fleck, Ex-Coroner M. Ellinger and Martin Dahlbender. Their object was to present the name of Commissioner of Accounts Charles G. F. Wahl for Sheriff.

The conference lasted until 11:15 o'clock. On its conclusion Mayor Gilroy, who had been selected as spokesman for the party, said:

"We did nothing but discuss the situation in a general way. Views of all sorts were exchanged, and then we adjourned to meet again at the call of the chair. I may add that the general opinion expressed was to the effect that the

Two things were made quite apparent to-day as a result of the meeting of Mayor Gilroy's Advisory Committee on Tammany Hall politics.

One of these things is that Tammany leaders conceive of William B. Grace and his State Democracy hold the key to the local political situation and must be "placated" without regard to the claims of Tammany office-seekers.

The other is that the Tammany leaders have come strong on Senator Hill's many platform to conceal their chagrin at being compelled to divide Congressmen, Assemblymen and local officials with the weaker faction of the party.

All this came out in an apparently general remark made by Mayor Gilroy after the meeting.

Fainting Fits Come On—An Opera-

Prayers for Russia's Autocrat Or-

Court Dignitaries and Other Officials
Hurry to Livadia.

(By Associated Press.)
BRESLAU, Oct. 8.—The Schlesische Zeitung publishes a despatch from St. Petersburg which says that a sudden change for the worse has taken place in the condition of the Czar.

The Minister of War has ordered prayers for the preservation of the life of the Czar to be offered up in all the garrison and regimental churches.

This order is said to be due to a telegram received direct from Livadia, stating that the Czar's illness had taken a disquieting turn.

Fainting fits are reported to have supervened and to have rendered an operation immediately necessary.

It is stated that the Court dignitaries and other high Russian officials have hurriedly started for Livadia.

JUDGES WERE SUSPICIOUS.

Changed Jockeys and Alanthracite
Won Easily at Aqueduct.

RACE TRACK, AQUEDUCT, Oct. 8.—A fairly large crowd was present to-day and the twelve books in the ring did a good business. The six races on the card filled well and promised good sport.

The results:—
First Race—Selling; four and one-half furlongs—in spite of heavy betting by the public, Alanthracite went from 2 to 1 to 10 to 1. The judges were suspicious and changed jockeys, putting Yetter up in place of Herwick. Alanthracite, 99 (Yetter), got away in front and led the wire, winning by two lengths. Gloriana, 106 (King), second by a head. Rose, 104 (Scanlon), third. Time—1:12.1/2.

Second Race—Selling; five furlongs.—To a good start Judge Gloriana, 100 (Fryer), rushed to the front and won easily by a length. Juliet, 105 (Yetter), was second, and Pattie, 105 (Donovan), third. Time—1:16.

Third Race—Selling; six furlongs.—Betting-Alanthracite, 2 to 1; and even; Gloriana, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1; Galey, 4 to 1. The race was a close one, Alanthracite leading from start to finish. Juliet, 105 (Yetter), was second, and Pattie, 105 (Donovan), third. Time—1:16.

Fourth Race—Selling; six furlongs.—To a good start Judge Gloriana, 100 (Fryer), rushed to the front and won easily by a length. Juliet, 105 (Yetter), was second, and Pattie, 105 (Donovan), third. Time—1:16.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, Oct. 8.—The smallest crowd that ever attended races at Morris Park probably filed through the gates here to-day. To look at the grand stand here to-day, one would never suppose that it was a race day. It was entirely deserted, save when the races were being contested. Not more than 2,000 persons were present. The weather was pleasant, and the track in fine shape.

The special race of Saturday was much discussed to-day. Domino's supporters were as loyal as ever, and argue that he could not have been himself, while Henry of Navarre's friends believed that the chestnut son of Knight of Ellerslie could beat Domino from a quarter-up to two miles. Another special is talked of, but it is hardly probable that the trio will come together again this year.

John McCafferty told his friends that Tom Harding was good, and worth a bet in the first race. Having implicit faith in the owner-trainer's tip, the friends plunged on Tom Harding. They were disappointed, however, for McCafferty was second throughout. Ed Kearney was third. Ed Kearney was third.
